About Our Community

Surrounded by the beautiful Rocky Mountains and enjoying an average of 200 days of sunshine a year, the mile-high city, Denver, and its metro area, is one of the fastest growing in the country. This area is a mecca for those who love the great outdoors!

Its natural beauty, amazing wildlife, drier climate and welcoming nature of its people, make the Metro area an extraordinary place to live. The Denver metro area's massive growth has been a double-edged sword. While the growth has helped bring in new industry and has allowed for terrific job opportunities, the need for affordable housing is at an all-time high. Neighborhoods are undergoing immense change, amplifying the disparity in wealth as brand new high-end homes appear right next to modest houses in need of critical maintenance. With limited affordable home repair options, longtime residents are facing pressure to leave their communities. One of Rebuilding Together Metro Denver's objectives is to preserve neighborhood diversity by mobilizing volunteers and community members to offer free home repairs for our neighbors in need. When you join Rebuilding Together, you'll have the chance to affect change in your own backyard, as we strategically concentrate resources in neighborhoods to build safe homes and communities. You also are able to be a part of something larger, as we belong to a network of approximately 130 affiliates across the country working to make safe homes and communities for everyone!
